we tell them that if they are preapproved without providing proper documentation, such as ID or bank statements, you are probably not approved and you being scammed," she said.